

SEO Report provides a comprehensive SEO Analysis of your website for FREE.

SEO Company, SEOGoogleGuru.com just announced an innovative SEO tool that is generating a lot of buzz.

A detailed SEO report designed for website owners seeking a thorough website SEO analysis to uncover problems that might be prohibiting them from obtaining top search engine rankings.

"We are changing our SEO services to include more affordable SEO solutions, due to the economy", say SEO Company owner, Randi Thornton. "Companies realize the value of SEO, but do not have the resources to hire a good SEO consultant."

"It is my opinion, a website should be a company's number marketing tool. In order to make your website visible to potential customers and prospects you need to incorporate solid SEO strategies."

By adding a free SEO report to our mix of SEO tools, we allow website owners the chance get a in depth insight to why or why not they are ranking and make concrete suggestion for ways to improve.

SEO is a process that includes over 200 different factors. If you do not optimize your website for most of these, you are missing an enormous opportunity to rank well in the search engines. SEO is the most important strategy to internet marketing.

Why is this important? Google received 2,780,997,436 visitors in January 2010 according to Compete.com. People use the search engines to find information including services and products. No matter what your website niche is, you can bet people search for it. A page one ranking on Google for your targeted keywords can have a massive impact on your revenues.

The new SEO Report details a SEO analysis that includes the following 3 key factors:

- Site Score: overview of what your site scores without optimization.
- SEO Overview: overview of SEO information for your homepage, which includes keywords and recommendations for key attributes of your page.

- Technology Overview: technology overview information for your website, which includes what technologies you are using and if we have recommendations for other technologies you could be using.

Another affordable SEO solution offered by SEOGoogleGuru.com is SEO training for website owners to learn and implement SEO best practices into their website.

About the author:

Randi Thornton, dubbed the SEO Google Guru, practices SEO services utilizing the latest SEO tools for organic SEO rankings. Most recently she has incorporated a series of affordable SEO solutions now available for website owners. She can be reached at 612-414-2541 or Randi@SEOGoogleGuru.com. Company website is SEOGoogleGuru.com